

PARK

SCHOLARSHIPS

Class of 2019

CALIFORNIA

Contra Costa - Samuel Sampaio Shain, son of Rita Sampaio and Philip Shain, Orinda, California. Sam will graduate from Miramonte High School where he is president of the Environmental Club and vice president of his school's cappella group, the Treblemakers. He is a producer of Performers for Progress, a nonprofit, student-run organization, and heads the Fundraising Committee on the Berkeley Repertory Theatre's Teen Council board, representing more than 300 teens from across the Bay Area. Sam plans to major in business administration and minor in theater.

COLORADO

La Plata - Logan Buzzell Graham, son of Scott and Susan Graham, Durango, Colorado. Logan will graduate from Durango High School, where he is co-student body president, newspaper editor-in-chief, and captain and All-Southwest League on the league-winning varsity soccer team. Logan was elected and is serving as president of the Colorado State Legislature Youth Advisory Council in Denver, and his newspaper columns were awarded first place in Colorado in the 2014 National Federation of Press Women student journalism competition. Logan plans to major in political science.

Arapahoe - Caroline Judith Kvietok, daughter of Frank and Lisa Kvietok, Aurora, Colorado. Caroline will graduate from Cherokee Trail High School where she is president of Technology Student Association (TSA), captain of the girls' varsity swim and dive team, and a Students Advocating Change and Student Leadership member. She received second place in the state TSA fashion design competition in 2014; traveled to Lima, Peru where she taught English at a primary school for three weeks last summer; and is currently helping to kick-start a Peaceful Schools program with some of her classmates at Iowa Elementary School. Caroline plans to major in textile design.

ILLINOIS

Kane - Kelly Elizabeth VanTreeck, daughter of Michael and Pamela VanTreeck, Batavia, Illinois. Kelly will graduate from Batavia High School where she is the executive publicist of National Honor Society, treasurer of Student Council, and has been a two-time volleyball captain. She has volunteered at local food pantries and shelters, won first place at the Chicagoland Television Educators Council Festival for a bullying public service announcement, and is ranked first in her class. Kelly plans to major in chemical engineering.

KENTUCKY

Woodford - Adrian Lee Teegarden, daughter of Kate Ware and Troy Teegarden, Versailles and Frankfort, Kentucky. Adrian will graduate from Woodford County High School where she is captain of the varsity volleyball team, co-president of Girls United, and vice president of the Harry Potter Alliance. She has served on Versailles' Strategic Planning Committee, has been an award winner of the statewide Department of Environmental Protection art contest, and is a member of Spark Versailles. Adrian plans to major in marine sciences; she hopes to become an oceanographer while spreading women's activism and her love of the arts.

MARYLAND

Washington - Sarah May Troxell, daughter of Timothy and Sue Troxell, Hagerstown, Maryland. Sarah will graduate from North Hagerstown High School where she is secretary of the Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics Club and is heavily involved in the Student Government Association. She also holds the office of secretary for the Maryland Association of Student Councils. Sarah participates in the Chesapeake Bay Foundation's Student Bay Advisory Committee, was selected to National Honor Society, and is a Maryland Leadership Workshop Certified Trainer. Sarah plans to major in industrial engineering.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Carroll - Ashley Nicole Samuelson, daughter of Jon and Joanie Samuelson, East Wakefield, New Hampshire. Ashley will graduate from Brewster Academy where she is a member of the Dean's Council, secretary of National Honor Society and editor of the yearbook. She also has earned Summa Cum Laude for all grading periods and has volunteered as a veterinarian assistant and at the Lakes Region Humane Society. Ashley plans to major in animal science.

NORTH CAROLINA

Brunswick - Hannah Kate Caison, daughter of Henderson Caison, Jr. and Wynn Wagenseil, Supply, North Carolina. Hannah will graduate from West Brunswick High School where she is president and co-founder of the Science Olympiad team, and a member of National Honor Society and the Student Government Association. She volunteers as a prosecuting attorney in the Brunswick County Teen Court program and was named an AP Scholar with Distinction in 2014. Hannah plans to major in political science.

Cabarrus - Kruti Sanjiv Patel, daughter of Sanjiv and Deena Patel, Harrisburg, North Carolina. Kruti will graduate from Hickory Ridge High School where she is president of Mu Alpha Theta math honor society, vice president of Key Club, and a varsity swim team captain. She also is a National Merit Commended Scholar, a children's art class teacher, and a Cabarrus County Senior Center volunteer. Kruti plans to major in human biology.

Catawba - Abigail Madison Cox, daughter of Roy and Bert Cox, Conover, North Carolina. Abigail will graduate from Newton-Conover High School where she is a varsity soccer team captain, president of Student Government, and vice president of Mu Alpha Theta math honor society. She also volunteers at the Humane Society, won the 2014 YMCA Teen Character Award, and attended Governor's School West. Abigail plans to major in animal science.

Craven - Christian Theodore Rust, son of Rev. Dr. Theodore and Beverly Rust, New Bern, North Carolina. Christian will graduate from New Bern High School where he is president of the Environmental Club, captain of the soccer team, and founder of the debate team. He is an active volunteer at St. Andrew Lutheran Church. Christian plans to major in chemical engineering.

Davie - Brooke Elizabeth Summers, daughter of David and Amy Summers, Advance, North Carolina. Brooke will graduate from Davie High School where she is captain of the cross country team and president of both the Students Understanding Real Futures board and the Student Coalition Against Genocide. She has been an advisory volunteer at Wake Forest Baptist Hospital, has created a school supplies replenishment program for disadvantaged students, and has received an Honorary Catalyst Award for her research at the North Carolina Central University Biomedical/Biotechnology Research Institute. Brooke plans to major in human biology.

Durham - Bailey Alexander Blankenship, son of Tanya and Ben Blankenship, Durham, North Carolina. Bailey will graduate from the North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics where he is a captain of FIRST Robotics Team 900 and the web applications designer for student government. He also serves as a Residential Life Assistant for his hall where he provides emotional support and counseling to peers. Bailey plans to major in biomedical engineering.

Durham - Keilah Shantel Davis, daughter of Herbert and Psiyina Davis, Durham, North Carolina. Keilah will graduate from the North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics where she is a physics teaching assistant; co-president of Heritage, Opportunity, Progress, and Education (HOPE); and secretary of NIA, a women's empowerment group. She has volunteered at Duke Gardens' summer camp, earned the Durham Mayor's Award for summer service, and tutors elementary school children through Urban Hope. Keilah plans to major in physics or mathematics.

Forsyth - Hannah Elizabeth Semke, daughter of Jean Anne and Scott Semke, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Hannah will graduate from R.J. Reynolds High School where she is president of Girls Council Service Club, captain of the varsity basketball team, and president of National Honor Society. She also is a member of the varsity dance team, a three-time National Presidential Service Award winner, and a volunteer with various youth basketball organizations. Hannah plans to major in business administration.

Guilford - Ziad Ali, son of Ahmed Ali and Rasha Arafa, Oak Ridge, North Carolina. Ziad will graduate from the Early College at Guilford where he is president of Guilford Model Congress and captain of the Quiz Bowl team. Ziad referees for the Kernersville Soccer Association, volunteers at Northwest Middle School, and won the Best Delegate Award at Harvard Model Congress. Ziad plans to major in engineering.

Henderson - Mary Lily Goff, daughter of Mary Susan and Travis Goff, Hendersonville, North Carolina. Lily will graduate from Hendersonville High School, to which she transferred during the final semester of her senior year. She previously attended The Woodlands College Park High School in Houston, Texas where she was president of Mu Alpha Theta math honor society. She attended Texas Bluebonnet Girls State and the Women's Technology Program in Mechanical Engineering at MIT in summer 2014. Lily plans to major in nuclear engineering.

Iredell - Samantha Logan Freeman, daughter of Joe and Carol Freeman, Mooresville, North Carolina. Sam will graduate from South Iredell High School where she is student body president and a member of two service clubs. She has completed mission work in Uganda and Ethiopia, and regularly plans and executes events at her local homeless shelter and battered women's shelter. Sam plans to major in business administration.

Lenoir - Cameron David Gray, son of William and Tammy Gray, Kinston, North Carolina. Cameron is a 2013 graduate of South Lenoir High School, where he was valedictorian, founder and president of Students Determined for Everyone to Excel, and captain of the Quiz Bowl Team. He is an Eagle Scout and has attended Summer Ventures and Governor's School. Since graduation, Cameron has served in Salt Lake City, Utah, as a full-time missionary for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Cameron plans to major in human biology.

Mecklenburg - Kelsi Maria Harris, daughter of William and Maria Harris, Mint Hill, North Carolina. Kelsi will graduate from Independence High School where she is a member of the DREAM Team, Student Council, National Honor Society, and Academy of International Studies. She has volunteered with Elevation Church's childcare program and with NC State University's Engineering Camp in Charlotte, and was selected to be a member of the 2014 Academic All-American lacrosse team by US Lacrosse. Kelsi plans to major in elementary education.

Mecklenburg - Clarissa Caroline Rainear, daughter of James and Melissa Rainear, Charlotte, North Carolina. Clarissa will graduate from Providence High School where she is managing editor of Roars and Whispers literary magazine, co-president of Peer Mentors, and president of Mu Alpha Theta math honor society. She has volunteered at South County Regional Library since 2010 and was a 2014 lead teen summer volunteer. Clarissa plans to major in computer science.

Nash - Jeffrey Perry Currin, son of Dennis and Shellie Currin, Nashville, North Carolina. Jeffrey will graduate from Nash Central High School where he is the assistant drum major of the marching band, a member of the swim team, and a National Honor Society inductee. He is also a Governor's School alumnus, the principle alto saxophonist in the 2014 All-State Honors Band, and a frequent volunteer at his church. Jeffrey plans to major in biomedical engineering.

Pitt - Morgan Elizabeth Barbre, daughter of Ray and Becky Barbre, Greenville, North Carolina. Morgan will graduate from Arendell Parrott Academy where she is president and founder of the Women's Studies Club, member of the Honor Council, and co-captain of the varsity cross country and swim teams. She also attended Governor's School for choral music, volunteered over three summers in a Guatemalan hospital for special needs children, and assisted with public art outreach for disadvantaged youth through the Pitt County Arts Council at Emerge. Morgan plans to major in human biology or pursue a self-designed major in global health through the interdisciplinary program.

Pitt - Madison Nicole Maloney, daughter of Rob and Shannon Maloney, Greenville, North Carolina. Madison will graduate from D.H. Conley High School where she is the founder and president of Club Connect, an organization dedicated to volunteerism with individuals with special needs; a regional representative on the North Carolina High School Athletic Association Student Athlete Advisory Council; and a three-sport varsity captain. She also attended Governor's School West as a Superintendent's Choice in mathematics, has been named a National Merit Semifinalist, and is an AP Scholar with Distinction. Madison plans to major in aerospace and mechanical engineering.

Pitt - Casey Blair Sokolovic, daughter of Dan and Kay Sokolovic, Winterville, North Carolina. Casey will graduate from D.H. Conley High School. She founded a nonprofit organization called Love a Sea Turtle, served as state coordinator for Stow It - Don't Throw It, and was the Neuse River Guardians Project coordinator. She is a recipient of the Nestle Very Best in Youth Award, the Gloria Barron Prize for Young Heroes, and the Peter Benchley Ocean Award. Casey plans to major in accounting, biology, and Spanish.

Robeson - Thomas Lyn Bailey, son of Joseph and Laura Lynn Bailey, Lumberton, North Carolina. Thomas will graduate from Lumberton Senior High School where he is captain of the swim and Science Olympiad teams, and a member of the cross country and tennis teams. He is an Eagle Scout with Troop 301, an active member of his church youth band, and a Governor's School alumnus. Thomas plans to major in physics.

Union - Molly Caitlin Mueller, daughter of Andrew and Courtney Mueller, Waxhaw, North Carolina. Molly will graduate from Marvin Ridge High School where she is senior class secretary and captain of the Congressional Debate Team. She serves on the Teen Volunteer Board of the Ronald McDonald House of Charlotte and volunteers at Novant Health Matthews Medical Center. She is also a private pilot. Molly plans to major in political science with a concentration in international politics.

Union - Aniket Sachin Palkar, son of Sachin and Sharmila Palkar, Waxhaw, North Carolina. Aniket will graduate from Marvin Ridge High School where he is co-founder and vice president of the Maverick Science and Engineering Fair Team, a debate captain for the Speech and Debate Team, and the building events captain for the Science Olympiad team. He volunteers at the Hindu Center of Charlotte's library and the Habitat for Humanity Re-Store, and has won a $25,000 scholarship for placing second in the Siemens We Can Change the World Challenge, a national science competition. Aniket plans to major in mechanical and computer engineering.

Wake - Jennifer Man Ngai Choy, daughter of Kong and Sui Choy, Raleigh, North Carolina. Jennifer will graduate from Needham B. Broughton High School where she is president of both Spanish Honor Society and Science Olympiad, and vice president of Math Club. She has volunteered at Rex Hospital and helps tutor students in her neighborhood for free. Jennifer plans to major in biology.

Wake - Pratyush Pavan Devarasetty, son of Prasada Rao Devarasetty and Preeti Bala Devarasetty, Cary, North Carolina. Pratyush will graduate from William G. Enloe High School where he is president of Odyssey of the Mind and treasurer of the Technology Student Association. He is also vice president of the Raleigh chapter of Child Rights and You (CRY) America. Pratyush plans to major in biomedical engineering.

Wake - Pranav Kemburu, son of Anuradha and Srinivasa Kemburu, Cary, North Carolina. Pranav will graduate from the North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics where he is a captain of NASA HUNCH, director of Science Days, and president of the Eating Local Foods Club. He has volunteered at UNC Hospital and at the Museum of Natural Science, for which he earned the Durham Mayor's Award, and is an Emerging Issues competition finalist. Pranav plans to major in biomedical engineering.

Wake - Jacob Ryan Kintz, son of Andy and Mary Kintz, Apex, North Carolina. Jacob will graduate from Middle Creek High School where he is president of the Science Honors Society, a tutor and member of the Spanish Honors Society, and a lettered member of the varsity lacrosse team. He has been a youth leader with the Appalachian Service Project, and attended Governor's School in 2014. Jacob plans to major in aerospace engineering.

Wake - Parker Eugene Lee, son of Robert and Jeannie Lee, Fuquay-Varina, North Carolina. Parker will graduate from Fuquay-Varina High School where he is president of the Debate Club, captain of the track and field team, treasurer of Key Club, and was awarded a soloist part in the Chamber Choir. He founded Fuquay Fitness Day, an event bringing in local fitness businesses to help over 400 students at his high school build healthy connections. Parker plans to major in business administration with a concentration in finance.

Wake - Rosalynn Felice Phan, daughter of Than Phan and Xuan Nguyen, Wake Forest, North Carolina. Rosalynn will graduate from Heritage High School where she is president of Science Olympiad, National Achievers Society, and National Technical Honor Society and a flute player in the marching band. She is an electrical engineering intern at Ultra Electronics 3 Phoenix, was awarded the Harvard Book Award, the Ronald Reagan Student Leader Award, and is a National Merit Semifinalist. Rosalynn plans to major in biochemistry.

Wayne - Sara Elizabeth Lewis, daughter of David and Angie Lewis, Goldsboro, North Carolina. Sara will graduate from Rosewood High School where she is a varsity cheerleader and president of both the Student Council and DECA. She is also a member of National Honor Society and serves as a freshman mentor through the school's Peer Group Connections program. Sara plans to major in fashion and textile management with a concentration in brand management and marketing.

OHIO

Geauga - Peter Girouard, son of Steven and Cynthia Girouard, Chagrin Falls, Ohio. Peter will graduate from Chagrin Falls High School where he is co-president of Engineering Club, captain of the varsity swim team, and a member of the Student Athlete Advisory Council. He also coaches the Chagrin Valley Recreation Center swim team and is an AP Scholar with Distinction. Peter plans to major in computer science.

SOUTH CAROLINA

Pickens - Charlotte Rose DeVol, daughter of Tim and Nancy DeVol, Clemson, South Carolina. Charlotte will graduate from D.W. Daniel High School where she is president of the Beta Club, secretary of the Science National Honor Society, and a member of the swim team and Mu Alpha Theta math honor society. She also serves as a leader of the peer ministry team at her church and is working towards her Girl Scout Gold Award. Charlotte plans to major in civil engineering.

VIRGINIA

Bedford – Rachel Jean Nagley, daughter of Scott and Julie Nagley, Forest, Virginia. Rachel will graduate from Jefferson Forest High School and the Central Virginia Governor's School for Science and Technology where she is president of National Honor Society, captain of the Scholastic Bowl team, and a student ambassador. She has provided over 400 hours of volunteer service to Virginia Baptist Hospital, has been recognized on regional and state levels for her research utilizing microfluidic devices to study naturally antibacterial surfaces, and is a National Merit Semifinalist. Rachel plans to major in biomedical engineering.

Loudoun - Justin Paul Traenkle, son of Ken and Sheila Traenkle, Sterling, Virginia. Justin will graduate from Dominion High School where he is a team leader of community service and a four-year member of the varsity baseball team. He served as an officer of the Global Ambassadors Club and represented the United States at the 2014 Asia Pacific Young Leaders Summit in Singapore. He also earned the Loudoun County Excellence in Education Award and the Rank of Eagle Scout from Troop 572. Justin plans to major in biological engineering.